About Kaplan University Partners

Kaplan University Partners (Kaplan UP!) is a newly created unit of Kaplan designed to help U.S. colleges and universities adapt and grow. Kaplan UP! is a first-of-its-kind “Multi-Purpose Strategic Partner” for higher education, leveraging the best insights and capabilities of one of the largest, most diversified global education organizations to serve as a strategic partner across several critical functions for a university.

We plan to work selectively with visionary presidents, their boards and leadership teams, and seek to be a long-term strategic partner to institutions that strive to grow, create a unique brand identity, and have a relentless focus on superior student experiences and outcomes.

Together with our partners, our mission is to help build a better talent development system for the world.
